The Guardians of Concepts Martina Steber,2023-01-13 Since 1945 what conservative means has troubled intellectuals politicians and parties in the United Kingdom and West Germany In Britain conservatism was an accepted term of the political vocabulary denoting a particular tradition of political thought and practice In West Germany by contrast conservatism was a difficult concept for the young democracy to swallow It carried a heavy antiliberal and antidemocratic burden and led people to question whether there was a place for conservatism within democratic culture after all The Guardians of Concepts scrutinizes the debates about conservatism in the UK and the Federal Republic of Germany from the late 1940s to the early 1980s Informed by historical semantics it conceives of conservatism as a flexible linguistic structure and shows the importance of language for the self understanding of many conservatives who not by chance have regarded themselves as the guardians of concepts The intense national and transnational debates about the meaning of conservatism had far reaching consequences and continue to influence politics today A Global History of Architecture Mark M. Collins,2002 The historian writing about the French Revolution in 2001 faces an odd situation because the long struggle of the Classicists and Revisionists has died down in part because there are so few Classical historians of the French Revolution still active That truce is puzzling in some ways because the Revisionists although they drove the Classicists from the field never succeeded in creating a synthesis of their own Now the old quarrel has moved to the wings the new historiography of the French Revolution both in the Francophone and Anglophone worlds has shifted into cultural evolution This book offers a synthesis of the events but one that integrates material from these different historiographical schools with a careful look at many of the original documents Pref The English Historical Review ,2012 World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis,Anthony Esler,2014 Historical Abstracts Eric H.
