

Concept Paper: Bullying

The bill, now a law defines acts of bullying in schools and authorizes these institutions to impose sanctions on student bullies. Bullying is the most common form of violence in schools, not only in elementary and secondary schools but also in tertiary level schools may it be state universities, school foundations or private colleges and universities. Students are ridiculed, taunted, teased, mocked and made fun of by fellow students who think or feel that they can get away with such behavior because they are superior, or great than the students they bully.

Schools and its administrators are always in a dilemma as to they would address bullies in the amp's. In previous news, a student from a very prestigious private school was a victim when a father of a classmate brought a gun in school toted it to a student inside the classroom. This was a very controversial issue that may have somehow hastened the passing of the anti-bullying law. A recent news also tackled about bullying in which a 12 year - old victim committed suicide by hanging herself due to depression from being bullied by her classmates.

It is therefore imperative for schools to come up with programs to promote such law and to make students aware of what they could do about the issue. It is the aim of this research to find out how knowledgeable or to determine the General Santos Doctors' Medical School Foundation Incorporated students' level of awareness about this matter and how they could help deter future bullies. Students' level of awareness will best serve as a basis on the development of possible intervention programs for the institution to prevent their students' sense of security.

Also, this study will answer if what are the common grounds and impacts of bullying among the students of General Santos Doctors' Medical School Foundation Incorporated. Target Respondents: Target respondents of the study are students in college level enrolled at and General Locale: The area of coverage for the study is limited to the college students from General Santos Doctors' Medical School Foundation Incorporated.

CONCEPT PAPER Objectives of the Study: The goal of this study is to investigate the main cause and the impacts of bullying and to know the level of awareness on bullying among the students of General Santos Doctors' Medical School Foundation Inc. , thereby improving the knowledge of students as well as the instructors and administrators of the institution in implementing intervention programs against bullying. The objectives of this study are: 1 . ) To know the level of awareness on bullying among the students of General Santos Doctors' Medical School Foundation Inc. . ) To empirically investigate the main cause and impact of bullying among the students of General Santos Doctors' Medical School Foundation Inc., 3. ) To make the students aware about the cause and impact of bully!

Impact of Bullying on Girls in Secondary Schools Difrine Madara,2020-12-09 Academic Paper from the year 2020 in the subject Sociology Children and Youth grade A Kenyatta University language English abstract The primary aim of this study is to explain the effect of bullying on girls in secondary schools To achieve this aim it is important to acknowledge that bullying is understood differently among different groups of people especially among students For instance what one person may consider to be bullying could be considered as normal behaviour by another person Due to this it is important to gather data from a wide range of sources and large samples to understand the extent of impact of bullying on girl students Meanwhile the study shall also examine the social interaction patterns which are affected by bullying in secondary schools Hence the researcher intends to explore the perception of bullying among girls in secondary schools and to assess how bullying affects girls in secondary schools physically mentally and socially In general the researcher s primary goal was to answer the question which impact bullying has on girls in secondary schools Bullying and harassment are common issues in many secondary schools in the United Kingdom In fact for many years bullying was viewed as a common feature in schools and was overlooked as a threat to students In some societies it was believed that bullying is one of the developmental stages that young people must get over However a considerable number of people often fails to get over the personal trauma that results from bullying

Bullying in Schools Susan L. Strating,2006 Middle School Journal ,2006 Queer Teaching - Teaching Queer Declan Fahie,Aideen Quilty,Renée DePalma Ungaro,2020-06-09 This book draws upon contemporary Irish and international research which explores the critical interplay between education studies and sexualities Scholars from Ireland Canada Spain the U K and Sweden employ the conceptual lens of Queer Theory to interrogate and destabilise long standing regimes of truth knowledge and in so doing highlight the suitability and applicability of this theoretical perspective within educational discourses By reframing and repositioning gender identity expression as a performative expression on a fluid continuum this book provokes readers to re view how they see education pedagogy and schooling The book interrogates what happens to teaching and teachers when queerness permeates their practice thus exposing the ways in which heteronormativity informs and shapes our places sites of education This book was originally published as a special issue of the Irish Educational Studies journal

Students, Teachers, and Leaders Addressing Bullying in Schools Christa Boske,Azadeh Osanloo,2016-10-13 The importance of Boske and Osanloo s approach to identifying the crisis of bullying in our society lives within the personal stories shared in this book Readers are reminded that victims of bullying are our own friends neighbors and classmates and those at every level in the community are challenged to be part of the solution The hatred carried out by those who bully impacts all of us not only the individual victims

Students Teachers and Leaders Addressing Bullying in Schools captures the tragedy victims face and the urgency of creating a new dialogue amongst our educators Judy Shepard Founder Matthew Shepard Foundation The most important experts on bullying are the students parents and educators who wrestle with its impact every day In this book Boske and Osanloo place them at the center of the dialogue to design lasting solutions and spur the national conscience into action Bias based bullying complicates systemic solutions by activating the isms and phobias that plague us all The bold collective behind this book calls us to get over our own stuff and double down on our efforts to create safe and affirming schools for all students Eliza Byard PhD Executive Director GLSEN The brilliance and boldness of this book lie in two distinguishing features First inspired by the Boske and Osanloo s vision the contributors discuss bullying as precisely what it is not an interpersonal challenge not a cross cultural tension not an issue that can be conflict mediated away but a social justice concern that is connected to bigger societal conditions and injustices Secondly Boske and Osanloo reject the idea that academics are the experts of everybody s experiences and so they open the space on the pages of their book to the targets of bullying and their on the ground advocates The result is revolutionary If you think you understand bullying I dare you to read this book Paul Gorski Founder EdChange Associate Professor Integrative Studies at George Mason University

The Bullying Policy. A Comparative Study Stephen Grams, 2019-02-25 Academic Paper from the year 2019 in the subject Psychology Miscellaneous grade 100% course Policy Analysis language English abstract The paper was written as the final assignment which was to determine our adeptness at educational policies and concerned the topic of bullying Bullying is defined by the Wis Dept of Public Instruction as behavior that is aggressive not wanted and occurring in conjunction with school age students Bullying harassment is caused by non harmonious perception or realization of power Bullying is often repetitive and may cause serious lasting problems A comprehensive approach to bullying prevention Retrieved from <https://dpi.wi.gov/sspw/safe-schools/bullying-prevention> These behaviors are normative occurrences in schools they are not considered socially acceptable in the context of democratic societies United Nations 1989 I posit bullying harassment may occur as a result of the intent to control another person s behavior attitudes beliefs and culture in general for the acquisition of resources and the resultant power to achieve a goal that is not entirely ethical

Bullying in American Schools Dorothy L. Espelage, Susan M. Swearer, 2004-02-04 Much of our knowledge about bullying behaviors comes from research conducted over the past several decades in Europe Australia and Canada Until the past decade research in the United States has lagged behind our European Australian and Canadian counterparts This book seeks to fill this void by forwarding research on bullying across contexts conducted with American participants This book is an exciting compilation of research on bullying in school aged youth conducted across the United States by a representative group of researchers including developmental social counseling school and clinical psychologists As such it presents a picture of the complexity of bullying behaviors and offers suggestions for using data based decision making to intervene and reduce bullying behaviors in our nation s schools Given the complexity of bullying and victimization this book gives guidance for schools as they develop prevention and intervention programming for bullying Providing a source through which school administrators can utilize the research findings the book is divided into five parts Part I illustrates the importance of individual characteristics across bully victim subtypes Part II addresses how peer groups relate to bullying across the school years Part III explores how teachers and classrooms influence bullying and aggression during the school years Part IV implicates ecological systems in fostering and maintaining bullying in schools It also highlights the potential for these systems to work in combating bullying Part V focuses on specific aspects of prevention and intervention planning New Era in Education ,2002 The Journal of Education ,1908
