IDENTIFY MEANINGS FOLLOW THE FILM

The authors give us several clues throughout the story that indicate to us that the animal mentioned at the start is indeed a vampire rabbit!

Background
Answer that question.

LITERATURE: CHARACTER TRAITS

The author has given us a lot of clues to give her/his/her name. Before the character even has fully revealed themselves, the author already has provided their own characteristics with few simple words and still has more. Before we even know about them, we can begin to get an idea of their traits or their qualities that define them. Try to use the information and evidence that reader's know who he is and why the reader would not stop for them to do things to him for several times to understand them.

Background
Answer that question.

VISUAL PLANNING: STORYBOARDING

When an author starts to write a story, they start to think of what they want to do, and they develop a storyboard with a series of small pictures or words that can be used to help the reader understand the story. A
