Guide for Training Collection Development Librarians American Library Association. Subcommittee on Guide for Training Collection Development Librarians, Susan L. Fales, Association for Library Collections & Technical Services. Administration of Collection Development Committee, 1996 Skillfully acquisitions and collection development plays a key role in creating exceptional libraries These authoritative resources provide the guidance you need to build and maintain the comprehensive high quality collection your customers demand Get expert advice on a selecting material from serial to CD ROMs b participating effectively in the budget process and c evaluating your existing collections and vendors Developed by ALA s Association for Library Collections selection and review processes weeding and deselection and navigating electronic networks The guide divides training into three skill levels supplies a curriculum framework matched to collection duties and identifies competencies achievable after training Fundamentals of Collection Development and Management Peggy Johnson, 2014-03-21 In this sweeping revision of a text that has become an authoritative standard expert instructor and librarian Peggy Johnson addresses the art of controlling and updating library collections whether located locally or accessed remotely Collection Management John Kennedy, 2006-06-01 The rapidly increasing reliance on digital rather than print based resources has not diminished the importance of library collection management but it has required significant modification in the thinking and the practice of collection managers who today usually have to consider their clients need for both print based and digital materials This updated edition aims to provide a concise overview of the major elements of contemporary collection management of print and digital resources including policy formulation selection acquisition evaluation preservation deselection and cooperative collecting in a way which aims to be of interest to the student and to any other reader seeking an understanding of a particularly dynamic area of librarianship Much that has been previously published on collection management focuses on academic libraries particularly those in North America This book places greater emphasis on the experiences of smaller public and special libraries and attempts to view its subject from the perspective of libraries in Australia and other countries geographically remote from North America and Western Europe Dr John Kennedy has taught collection management at Charles Sturt University for over a decade and has produced several previous publications on the subject Assessment of Library Collections in a Consortial Environment George Lupone, 2013-09-13 The consortial environment provides librarians with new ways to manage collections at their home institutions Academic libraries in Ohio have been participating in OhioLINK since 1988 and the consortium has had an effect on shaping local collections for more than one decade While each institution pursues its own collection management strategy the shared resources and delivery system provided through OhioLINK influence local collections profoundly What has been the effect This work is a collection of articles assessing local collections within a consortial environment The authors assess collections from their own vantage points considering such diverse factors as cost regional depositories book reviews and faculty input The influence of consortial ties in shaping local collections is a common thread throughout the work This book was published as a special issue of Collection Management

Centers for Learning James K. Elmborg, Sheril Hook, 2005 This collection examines the potential inherent in partnerships between libraries and writing centers and suggests that such partnerships might respond more effectively to student needs than separate efforts The essays consist primarily of case studies of collaborations in institutions throughout the US The concluding chapter reflects on the impl
