

Essay on India 150 words

India is a beautiful country with unique cultures and traditions. It has a rich historical heritage and monuments. Citizens are polite and understanding. This was a slave country before 1947 under British rule.

India was eventually freed from British rule in 1947 after years of hard struggle and sacrifice by the great Indian freedom fighters. When India became free, Jawaharlal Nehru hoisted the Indian flag and declared, "India will wake up to life and freedom when the world sleeps."

There are democratic elements in India, where the public has a say in making decisions affecting the country's well-being. A famous saying in India is "Unity in Diversity" because people from various religions, castes, cultures, and traditions live harmoniously. World heritage sites have included most Indian monuments and heritages.
