with Comprehension Questions

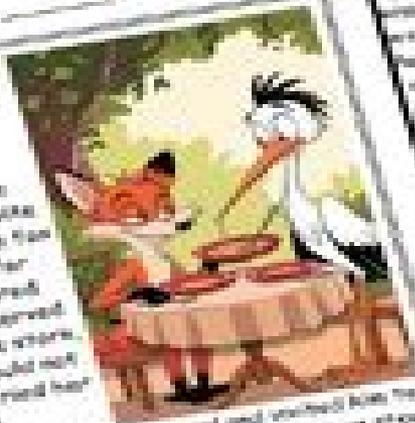

THE FOX AND THE STORK

A fox and a stork became friends and decided to make each other dinner. The fox invited the stork first. For the meal, the fox prepared a delicious soup, but he served it in shallow bowls. The stork, with her long beak, could not drink the soup. She tried her best but left hungry.

The stork invited the fox for the next and invited him to her home the next day. The stork prepared a delicious meal and served it in tall, narrow jars. The fox could only lick the outside of the jar with his short snout and could not reach the glass inside. This time, it was the fox who left hungry.

As the fox walked home, he realized the stork had given him a taste of his own kitchen.

Moral: Treat others the way you want to be treated.

THE DONKEY AND THE LOAD OF SALT

One day, a merchant loaded his donkey with large bags of salt to sell at the market. As they crossed a stream, one of the bags slipped and fell into the water. The donkey was pleased because the load was lighter. The next day, the merchant loaded the donkey with the same thing.

When they reached the stream, the donkey jumped into the water. This time, he understood the donkey's trick. The sponge absorbed water, making the load heavier. The donkey learned his lesson.

Moral: Don't try to trick others by making themselves.

THE DOG AND THE REFLECTION

One day, a dog found a delicious, juicy bone. Feeling proud and excited, he held it tightly in his mouth and began walking home. On his way, he came to a wooden bridge that crossed a small, clear stream.

As he looked down into the water, he saw his reflection. Although he didn't realize it was just an image of himself, he thought the dog in the water was holding an even bigger and tastier bone. Greedy for more, he decided to chase the "other dog" so he could take the bigger bone.

The dog looked closely, but as he opened his mouth, the bone he was carrying fell into the water. The stream quickly carried it away, leaving the dog with nothing.

Disappointed and hungry, the dog walked home, realizing his mistake. The great fool was the bone he already had.

Moral: Be content with what you have.
