FACILITATOR INSTRUCTIONS

Prior to facilitation, print the COLDF Cooling cards and cut them out. There are 50 questions that can be used for any of the 20 competencies. You will need 2 cards per participant.

Brief: "You are the experts on this competency. This activity is about having a discussion and sharing some of that knowledge."

Note: It is up to the facilitator to determine which competency you want to discuss during the session. Participants will all be in the same room. Example: "Health and Wellness"

Swap questions and answers with other people on your team.

1. Pair up with one person from your team on your card, listen to your partner's response, and then answer the question on your card to the air to signal that you are looking for a new partner.
2. Swap cards with your partner.

Optional: Add a rotation rule to the activity. The rules are the same as round one but instruct participants to rotate to the next person in the room. Subjective is when you are listening to "No" or "Yes" responses. You are just there to hear that person's experience. You are just there to hear that person's experience.

Note: The activity is designed to be a 15-minute activity.
