The Oxford Handbook of the Responsibility to Protect Alex Bellamy, Tim Dunne, 2016-06-30 The Responsibility to Protect R2P is intended to provide an effective framework for responding to crimes of genocide ethnic cleansing war crimes and crimes against humanity It is a response to the many conscious shocking cases where atrocities on the worst scale have occurred even during the post 1945 period when the United Nations was built to save us all from the scourge of genocide The R2P concept accords to sovereign states and international institutions a responsibility to assist peoples who are at risk or experiencing the worst atrocities R2P maintains that collective action should be taken by members of the United Nations to prevent or halt such gross violations of basic human rights This Handbook containing contributions from leading theorists and practitioners including former foreign ministers and special advisors examines the progress that has been made in the last 10 years it also looks forward to likely developments in the next decade

Resource Material Series ,2014 Privatising Justice Wendy Fitzgibbon,John Lea,2020-04-20 Privatising Justice takes a broad historical view of the role of the private sector in the British state from private policing and mercenaries in the eighteenth century to the modern rise of the private security industry in armed conflict policing and the penal system The development of the welfare state is seen as central to the decline of what the authors call old privatisation Its succession by neoliberalism has created the ground for the resurgence of the private sector The growth of private military policing and penal systems is located within the broader global changes brought about by neoliberalism and the dystopian future that it portends The book is a powerful petition for the reversal of the increasing privatisation of the state and the neoliberalism that underlies it

Women's Social and Legal Issues in African Current Affairs Victoria M. Time,2016-12-06 This volume explores the difficulties that beset African women and inhibit them from excelling in many walks of life in the twenty first century Asymmetrical relations in society position women in subjugated and marginalized roles This is caused by customary practices that have left women in vulnerable and subsidiary positions as well as statutory provisions that fester this process Despite its richness in raw materials and minerals Africa remains slow to grow when compared to other continents The economies of most African countries is severely anemic corruption is rife poor governance is systemic and wars conflicts famine and diseases abound Stalled economies disproportionately affects women for example as nurturers women have the extra responsibility of taking care of children and members of the extended family In times of want women are more likely to give up the little they have so that their children and others may survive This book shows the various social and legal obstacles that stall women s upward mobility and offers recommendations on how these issues can be resolved
