

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PAPER 4

PART A Group Interaction

Below is an extract from a Hong Kong university's regular newsletter:

YouSchool?

In Asia, chances for face-to-face interaction with English speakers are limited, making it harder to learn English. But the situation is changing. A study started by the Hong Kong Institute of Education has found evidence of language learning and teaching on the social networking website YouTube.

The study investigated a video featuring the 2008 Olympics song, Beijing Welcomes You, which was sung in Mandarin Chinese. It was translated and subtitled by amateurs or fans into English – a process known as “fansubbing”. The researchers were particularly interested in the comments made by viewers. They were investigating whether there was informal language teaching and learning taking place.

“We have seen language teaching and learning-related episodes where there is direct attention to language forms, but also episodes where there is relatively deep discussion of issues concerning languages and cultures,” said principal investigator Professor Philip Benson.

The online interactions often involved English and Chinese speakers helping each other to learn each other's language. Findings showed that online language teaching and learning had “an informal and playful character often characterized by a direct style of correction and expressing opinion that may be unique to YouTube.”

Your teacher wants your group to give a presentation to encourage other students to learn English outside the classroom. You may want to talk about:

- how you could learn English through YouTube and other social networking sites
- what other ways you can think of to learn English outside the classroom
- advice to give to students who are new to learning English by themselves
- anything else you think is important

PART B Individual Response

1. What is your favourite way to learn English?
2. Do you think YouTube is a good way to learn English?
3. What other ways could you use YouTube to learn English?
4. Do you think it is better to learn English by yourself or with a teacher?
5. What are the problems of using YouTube to learn English?
6. Why do you think writing comments on YouTube is popular?
7. What is the hardest thing about learning a language by yourself?
8. Can online language learning and teaching replace classroom teaching?

2013 Dse English Paper 4:

Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin, 2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry

Indigenous Rights and Water Resource Management Katie O'Bryan, 2018-10-26 In an era of climate change the need to manage our water resources effectively for future generations has become an increasingly significant challenge Indigenous management practices have been successfully used to manage inland water systems around the world for thousands of years and Indigenous people have been calling for a greater role in the management of water resources As First Peoples and as holders of important knowledge of sustainable water management practices they regard themselves as custodians and rights holders deserving of a meaningful role in decision making This book argues that a key albeit not the only means of ensuring appropriate participation in decision making about water management is for such participation to be legislatively mandated To this end the book draws on case studies in Australia and New Zealand in order to elaborate the legislative tools necessary to ensure Indigenous participation consultation and representation in the water management landscape

Advancing Language Research through Q Methodology Nicola Frascini, Adrian Lundberg, Renata Aliani, 2024-07-16 This volume investigates the ways in which Q methodology can uncover and foreground new perspectives and contribute to language education and language policy research It demonstrates the flexibility of this research methodology in addressing dynamic and complex language issues across a variety of educational topics and geographical contexts The chapter authors use Q methodology to explore topics such as identity motivation cognition emotion pre service and in service teacher beliefs and to evaluate language programmes curricula and policies These contributions highlight Q methodology s potential to inform theoretical developments by revealing fresh perspectives on contemporary issues and generating new hypotheses They foster further Q methodology research demonstrating how it can contribute to a science of subjectivity and allow researchers to value the perspectives of all stakeholders for more inclusive research This book will be of interest to graduate students and researchers in language education and language policy research and those in the broader field of social sciences looking to expand their knowledge of the methodology and how it can be used to study contemporary dynamic and complex issues

Whole School Approaches to Sustainability Arjen E.J. Wals, Birgitte Bjønness, Astrid Sinnes, Ingrid Eikeland, 2024-06-22 In response to urgent global sustainability challenges Education for Sustainable Development ESD and Global Citizenship Education have been prioritized in the United Nations Agenda 2030 under SDG 4.7 There is a growing awareness that treating concepts such as global citizenship sustainable development climate urgency and health and well being as separate subjects or topics to be added to a curriculum is ineffective as they are highly interconnected Additionally this approach is problematic as schools already have an overcrowded curriculum This edited volume brings together a range of scholars and reflective practitioners from across the globe who are investigating and enacting a whole school approach WSA in education for sustainability While the WSA and related approaches such as those advocated by EcoSchools are becoming more popular there is a lack of understanding of their underlying principles and the different manifestations in diverging socio cultural contexts at different educational levels This collection of chapters provides a deeper understanding of the WSA while also addressing its effectiveness possibilities for upscaling professional development needs for WSA practitioners interlinkages with more conventional curriculum requirements expectations of students and parents and more This is an open access book
