2013 Afrikaans Exemplar Grade 9:

Towards the Multilingual Semantic Web Paul Buitelaar, Philipp Cimiano, 2014-11-13 To date the relation between multilingualism and the Semantic Web has not yet received enough attention in the research community One major challenge for the Semantic Web community is to develop architectures frameworks and systems that can help in overcoming national and language barriers facilitating equal access to information produced in different cultures and languages As such this volume aims at documenting the state of the art with regard to the vision of a Multilingual Semantic Web in which semantic information will be accessible in and across multiple languages The Multilingual Semantic Web as envisioned in this volume will support the following functionalities 1 responding to information needs in any language with regard to semantically structured data available on the Semantic Web and Linked Open Data LOD cloud 2 verbalizing and accessing semantically structured data ontologies or other conceptualizations in multiple languages 3 harmonizing integrating aggregating comparing and repurposing semantically structured data across languages and 4 aligning and reconciling ontologies or other conceptualizations across languages The volume is divided into three main sections Principles Methods and Applications The section on Principles discusses models architectures and methodologies that enrich the current Semantic Web architecture with features necessary to handle multiple languages The section on Methods describes algorithms and approaches for solving key issues related to the construction of the Multilingual Semantic Web The section on Applications describes the use of Multilingual Semantic Web based approaches in the context of several application domains This volume is essential reading for all academic and industrial researchers who want to embark on this new research field at the intersection of various research topics including the Semantic Web Linked Data natural language processing computational linguistics terminology and information retrieval It will also be of great interest to practitioners who are interested in re-examining their existing infrastructure and methodologies for handling multiple languages in Web applications or information retrieval systems

The Atlas of Pidgin and Creole Language Structures Susanne Maria Michaelis, Philippe Maurer, Martin Haspelmath, Magnus Huber, 2013-09-05 The Atlas presents commentaries and colour maps showing how 130 linguistic features phonological syntactic morphological and lexical are distributed among the world's pidgins and creoles Designed and written by the world's leading experts it is a unique resource of outstanding value for linguists of all persuasions throughout the world

Globalising Sociolinguistics Dick Smakman, Patrick Heinrich, 2015-05-15 This book challenges the predominance of mainstream sociolinguistic theories by focusing on lesser known sociolinguistic systems from regions of Africa Asia the Caribbean South America the European Mediterranean and Slavic regions as well as specific speech communities such as those speaking Nivkh Jamaican Creole North Saami and Central Yupik In nineteen chapters the specialist authors look at key sociolinguistic aspects of each region or speech community such as gender politeness strategies speech patterns and the effects of social hierarchy on language concentrating on the differences from mainstream models The volume introduced by Miriam Meyerhoff has been written by the leading expert of each specific region or community and includes contributions by Rajend Mesthrie Marc Greenberg and Daming Xu This publication draws together connections across regions communities and considers how mainstream sociolinguistics is incomplete or lacking It reveals how lesser known cultures can play an important role in the building of theory in sociolinguistics Globalising Sociolinguistics is essential reading for any researcher in sociolinguistics and language variation and will be a key reference for advanced sociolinguistics courses
