Sociological Perspective Lesson Plan

Will Curtis, Alice Pettigrew

Sociological Perspective Lesson Plan:

Lesson Plans Judson G. Everitt, 2017-12-21 In Lesson Plans Judson G. Everitt takes readers into the everyday worlds of teacher training and reveals the complexities and dilemmas teacher candidates confront as they learn how to perform a job that many people assume anybody can do Using rich qualitative data Everitt analyzes how people make sense of their prospective jobs as teachers and how their introduction to this profession is shaped by the institutionalized rules and practices of higher education K 12 education and gender Trained to constantly adapt to various contingencies that routinely arise in schools and classrooms teacher candidates learn that they must continually try to reconcile the competing expectations of their jobs to meet students needs in an era of accountability Lesson Plans reveals how institutions shape the ways we produce teachers and how new teachers make sense of the multiple and complicated demands they face in their efforts to educate students Teaching Strategies for the Social Studies James A. Banks, Ambrose A. Clegg, 1977

Learning in Contemporary Culture Will Curtis, Alice Pettigrew, 2009-05-18 This book provides an accessible undergraduate level introduction to the central educational concepts of learning and culture In examining these themes it addresses key issues including what is meant by culture characteristics commonly associated with contemporary culture relationships between culture and learning changing understandings of how what where and when we learn the relationship between learning national identity and citizenship and the impact of all these on our way of life today These ideas are approached from historical philosophical sociological political and psychological perspectives the traditional disciplines of Education Studies Resources in Education, 1989-10 Education, Research and Perspectives, 1990 The Sociological Perspective Scott G. McNall, 1974 Teacher Education Matters William H. Schmidt, Sigrid Blömeke, Maria Teresa Tatto, 2011-01-20 Based on a major international teacher education research project the Mathematics Teaching in the 21st Century Study MT21 this book investigates the preservice preparation of middle school mathematics teachers in the United States South Korea Taiwan Germany Bulgaria and Mexico The study was funded by the National Science Foundation and the participating countries William Schmidt co author of the influential TIMSS study on student test results in science and math and Maria Teresa Tatto director of the Teacher Education and Development study or TEDS M led a collaborative team of international researchers in this study Using the results of more than 2 500 surveys the authors examine the differential contribution of the six countries teacher education models to the knowledge skills and dispositions of their future mathematics teachers Case studies and detailed analyses of the teacher education curriculum across the participating countries provide rich contextual information to explain the survey findings This study is the first to examine the resource allocation and economic support in teacher education vis vis other mathematics related professions and it shows that differential investment patterns are consistent with the level of teaching knowledge found in each country s new teachers The book includes a chapter on policy implications with a special focus on teacher preparation in the United States
