The Psychogeography of Urban Architecture David Prescott-Steed,2013 This praxis based book explores how an improvisational creative and embodied practice such as the derive works to defamiliarise our experience of the late modern built environment fostering new insight into routinised cultural behaviours In addition to detailing the key contexts of modernity this book includes case studies on the work of Viktor Shklovsky Craig Raine Georges Perec plus rare scholarly attention to the postcards of Jim Henson s Uncle Traveling Matt Tertiary students and early career researchers in the humanities particularly cultural theory and the creative arts will read about the work of internationally recognised artists who have responded creatively to the urban landscape in view of its habituation under advanced capitalism The research aims to provide sufficient detail for the reader to recognise a range of cultural conditions pertaining to the historical period that frames contemporary quotidian experience and that in turn informs a wide range of reflexive creative practices The book's hybridity complimenting a traditional scholarly style with auto ethnographic and journalistic writing offers the reader an authorial honesty transparency and humanity in its intellectual practical and emotional negotiation of psychogeographic ideas International Handbook of Education for Spirituality, Care and Wellbeing Marian de Souza, LESLIE J.

FRANCIS, James O'Higgins-Norman, Daniel G. Scott, 2009-10-13 Acknowledging and understanding spiritual formation is vital in contemporary education This book explores the dynamic relationship between education and wellbeing It examines the theory underpinning the practice of education in different societies where spirituality and care are believed to be at the heart of all educational experiences The book recognizes that regardless of the context or type of educational experience education is a caring activity in which the development of the whole person body mind and spirit is a central aim for teachers and educators in both formal and informal learning The chapters in this handbook present and discuss topics that focus on spirituality as an integral part of human experience and consequently essential to educational programs which aim to address personal and communal identity foster resilience empathy and compassion and promote meaning and connectedness
