Temptation of Graves in Salafi Islam Pavel Tupek, Ondrej Beranek, 2017-12-04 In various parts of the Islamic world over the past decades virulent attacks have targeted Islamic funeral and sacral architecture Rather than being random acts of vandalism these are associated with the idea of performing one's religious duty as attested to in the Salafi Wahhabi tradition and texts Graves shrines and tombs are regarded by some Muslims as having the potential to tempt a believer to polytheism Hence the duty to level the graves to the ground taswiyat al qubur In illuminating the ideology behind these acts this book explains the current destruction of graves in the Islamic world and traces the ideological sources of iconoclasm in their historical perspective from medieval theological and legal debates to contemporary Islamist movements including ISIS

Nationality of Foundlings Mai Kaneko-Iwase, 2021-09-24 This is the first book dedicated to clarifying the concept of foundlings and how to best prevent their statelessness in light of the object and purpose of Article 2 of the 1961 UN Convention on the Reduction of Statelessness and equivalent nationality law provisions Among other features the book defines the terms foundling including the maximum age limit of the child to be considered a foundling unknown parents being found in a territory and proof to the contrary as well as the procedural issues such as the appropriate burden and standard of proof In doing so the book draws upon a comparative analysis of national legislation on foundlings covering 193 states case law and precedents in some states as well as international human rights law norms including the best interests of the child As its conclusion the book proposes an inclusive model foundling provision and a commentary to inform legislative efforts and interpretation of the existing provisions Its findings are useful not only to state parties to the 1961 Convention but also to non state parties particularly in countries lacking systematic civil documentation or experiencing the effects of armed conflicts migration trafficking and displacement
