1 worked in several departments and gained knowledge about all aspects of the business.

I believe this job will allow me to acquire new skills and boost my earnings. My gap year in the States definitely improved my employability, and working for IBM certainly enhanced my CV. On my Business studies course I received tuition from practising managers and obtained experience on work placements.

5 obtain 6 win 7 subsidize

3 Student A

I wasn't a very motivated student when I was younger, so I failed my exams in 1999 and had to retake them the following summer. I'd already decided I wanted to take a gap year then go to business school, so this time I completed all the coursework and revised thoroughly; I passed easily. I spent a year abroad as an assistant in a secondary school and then went to business school – I'd already applied and successfully attended an interview before realising my exams. In my second year as an undergraduate, I spent a semester as an intern at Hewlett Packard, which was very rewarding. In fact, I went straight into a job at HP after I graduated the following June. They encouraged me to do a Master's degree by correspondence – I just have to finish writing a dissertation. I need a break now, but I may take a sabbatical to study for an MBA in a few years' time.

Student B

I wasn't a very motivated student when I was younger, so I had to retake my exams in 2000 after I failed them the year before. I'd already decided that before going to business school I wanted to take a gap year. I passed easily because this time I completed all the coursework and revised thoroughly. I'd already applied and successfully attended an interview at a business school, so after realising my exams I spent a year abroad as an assistant in a secondary school. I spent a semester as an intern at Hewlett Packard in my second year as an undergraduate, which was very rewarding. In fact, after I graduated the following June I went straight into a job at HP. I'm now writing a dissertation for a Master's degree by correspondence which HP encouraged me to do. I may take a sabbatical to study for an MBA in a few years' time, but I need a break first.

1.3 Grammar: Tense review

1 When I left school I wasn't sure what to do next. I had applied for a place at university, but while I was revising for my exams I had already decided that I didn't feel ready for university. I had read a lot about East Africa, and one day when I was watching a TV documentary about Ethiopia, I suddenly knew that that was where I was going. In fact I was while I was working with an NGO in Ethiopia that I became interested in business.

  - You see, if I make a commitment, I do my best to respect it.
  - If by any chance the job over based in Kenya, I would take it anyway, even though I'd prefer to use my Ambac.

4 In the short term, I hope (1) I'll become a department manager quite quickly. We learnt a lot about management on the MBA, and (2) I'm going to put the theory into practice as soon as I can. On the personal front, (3) I'm getting married next June; over the next couple of years my fiancé (4) is going to write TV and movie scripts, so (5) he is going to be totally mobile and happy to move as necessary.

Data Revocation on the Internet Olga Kieselmann,2018-01-30 After publishing data on the Internet the data publisher loses control over it However there are several situations where it is desirable to revoke published information To support this the European Commission has elaborated the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR In particular this regulation requires that controllers must delete data on user's demand However the data might already have been copied by third parties Therefore Article 17 of the GDPR includes the regulation that a controller must also inform all affected third parties about revocation requests Hence the controllers would need to track every access which is hard to achieve This technical infeasibility is a gap between the legislation and the current technical possibilities To close it we provide a distributed and decentralized Internet wide data revocation service DRS which is based on the combination of the technical mechanisms and the obligation to follow the legal regulations With the DRS the user can notify automatically and simultaneously all affected controllers about her revocation request Thus we implicitly provide the notification of third parties about the user's request
