You Don't Need a Budget Dana Miranda, 2024-12-24 Free yourself from the tyranny of toxic budget culture and build an ethical stress free financial life Track every dollar you spend Check your account balances once a week Always pay off your credit card bill in full Make a budget and stick to it These are just a few of the edicts you ll find in virtually every personal finance book But this kind of rigid one size fits all advice usually written for and by wealthy white men and a few women with little perspective on the money struggles that many people face is unrealistic and only creates stress and shame As a financial journalist and educator Dana Miranda is on a mission to liberate readers from budget culture the damaging set of beliefs around money that rely on restriction shame and greed much like diet culture does for food and bodies In this long overdue alternative to traditional budgeting advice Miranda offers a new approach that makes money easy for everyone regardless of the numbers in their bank account Full of counterintuitive advice like how to use debt to support your life goals how to plan for retirement without a 401K and how to take advantage of resources that exist to support those left behind by the forces of capitalism You Don't Need a Budget will empower readers to get money off their mind and live the lives they want

Major Decisions Laurie Grobman, E. Michele Ramsey, 2020-03-13 A practical how to guide for students and a powerful reminder of the value of a humanities education In recent decades the humanities have struggled to justify themselves in the American university The costs of attending a four year college have exploded resulting in intense pressure on students to major in STEM science technology engineering and mathematics business and other pre professional or practical majors that supposedly transmit more marketable skills than can be acquired from the humanities But as Laurie Grobman and E Michele Ramsey argue this vision of humanities majors idly pondering the meaning of life for four years is inaccurate Major Decisions demonstrates how choosing a major in the humanities is a worthwhile investment in a global economy that is shifting in the direction of college graduates who think broadly critically and ethically Indeed the core skills and knowledge imparted by an education in the humanities including facility with written and verbal communication collaboration problem solving technological literacy ethics leadership and an understanding of the human impacts of globalization are immensely useful to employers across a variety of sectors Major Decisions serves as a deeply informative guide to students and parents and provides a powerful reminder to employers and university administrators of the true value of an education in the humanities
