

Cost and Management Accounting I

Chapter I. Fundamentals of Cost Accounting

1.1 Definition of Cost accounting and Managements accounting

Accounting is a major means of helping managers

- a. To administer each of the activity or functional areas over which they are responsible and
- b. To coordinate those functions within the framework of the organization as a whole.

Accounting provides information for three major purposes:

1. Routine internal reporting for the decisions of managers.
2. Non routine internal reporting for decisions of managers.
3. External reporting to investors, government authorities, and other outside parties on the organization's financial position, operations, and related activities.

Management Accounting

- ☞ Measures and reports financial and non financial information that helps managers to fulfil the goals of the organization.
- ☞ Concerned with providing information to managers, i.e. people inside the organization who direct and control its operations.
- ☞ Focuses on internal reporting.

Financial Accounting

- ☞ Concerned with providing information to stockholders, creditors and other who are outside the organization.
- ☞ Focuses on reporting to external parties.
- ☞ It measures and records business transactions and provides financial statements that are based on IFRS.

Managers are responsible for the financial statements issued to investors, government regulators, and other outside parties. Therefore, managers are interested in both management accounting and financial accounting.

1.2 Management Accounting Vs Financial Accounting

- ☞ Since planning is such an important part of the manager's job, managerial accounting has a strong future orientation. But financial accounting primarily provides summaries of past financial transaction. The difficulty with summaries of the past is that the future is not simply a reflection of what has happened in the past. Changes are constantly taking place in economic conditions, customer needs and so on.
- ☞ FA data are expected to be objective and verifiable. However, for internal uses the manager wants information that is relevant even if it is not completely objective or verifiable. By relevant, we mean appropriate for the problem on hand.
- ☞ Timeliness is often more important than precision to managers. If decision must be made, a manager would much rather have a good estimate now than wait for a week for a more precise answer. In addition, MA places considerable weight on non monetary data. For example, information about
