The correctional officer has the responsibility to safely confine criminal offenders and by doing so properly keeps the public safe. This book is meant to give the reader whether a student or a trainee a clear realistic understanding of what correctional officers do from patrolling cellblocks, preventing escapes, and handling security issues to dealing with various types of offenders and their behaviors. The Correctional Officer is realistically written, features a glossary of commonly used corrections terms, and has been updated in detail. Each chapter contains discussion questions to assist both the college instructor and corrections trainer.

Topics covered include the various stages of crisis from indications of impending crises and what starts disturbances, general guidelines for managing a crisis, and how to handle specific types of crises.

Prisons Joycelyn M. Pollock, 2006

Featuring chapters contributed by leading authorities on the modern prison system, this text examines the many purposes of prisons: punishment, deterrence, rehabilitation, and incapacitation, and examines controversial issues such as whether imprisonment actually deters crime or merely serves as punishment.
