him with many of America's great artistic moments and figures from New York City's Group Theatre of the 1930s to the rebellious forefront of 1950s Hollywood from Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy to Marlon Brando and James Dean. Ebullient and secretive, bold and self-doubting, beloved yet reviled for naming names before the House Un-American Activities Committee, Kazan was an individual as complex and fascinating as any he directed. Noted film historian and critic Richard Schickel illuminates much more than a single astonishing life and life's work. He pays discerning tribute to the power of theater and film and casts a new light on six crucial decades of American history. Includes photographs. A New York Times Notable Book. Magnificent.
