

Comparing Two Poems

Underface

By Shel Silverstein (2011)

Underneath my outside face
There's a face that none can see
A little less smiley,
A little less sure,
But a whole lot more like me.

Notes:

This poem is about having a "face" that we put on in front of people that is not really a true representation of ourselves.

Notes:

This poem is about two people who put on a mask to cover up who they really are, but what they don't know is that underneath those masks they are actually the same.

Masks

By Shel Silverstein

She had blue skin,
And so did he.
He kept it hid
And so did she.
They searched for blue
Their whole life through,
Then passed right by—
And never knew.

Comparison: Both of these poems talk about having some sort of mask on that covers who we really are. The author is trying to tell the audience that they should not cover up their real selves. We should just be happy with who we truly are.
